To Whom IT May Concern,

We are foster parents of Sabrina ██████████ and last fall you approved a grant for her to attend a life skills class conducted by Trinity's Learning Resource Center. This is a letter of recommendation for this program. Sabrina came to us having lived on the streets with her mom who was on drugs and doing other illicit activity. Sabrina had missed an entire year of school and needless to say was behind.

Trinity's Learning Resource Center's program taught and reinforced self discipline, respect, and self respect qualities that Sabrina successfully incorporated into her everyday life. They basically taught stewardship of one's life. This included study habits, organization skills, money management, personal hygiene, cleaning of house, room, clothes ect, and peer pressure issues like gang awareness. Sabrina had a successful school year and received really good grades in large part to this program. Additionally, she has integrated into our family exceptionally well.

We would just like to once again recommend this program to you for any future foster children's consideration.

Sincerely,

Robert and Raquel Wagenfehr
